The Blue Marlin (1700lb) double-thread fishing magnet

The Blue Marlin : 1700 lb (combined) pulling force, double sided round neodymium magnet, with two M10 eyebolt (3.7" diameter)

Description :

One of our favorite fishing magnet! With the Blue Marlin you are starting to be in the big league. Good strength for a fishing magnet. Appropriate for shallow areas. It's about half as heavy as a brick (1600 grams / 3.53 lb).

This model with two eyebolts provides more versatility by allowing it to be used as a double-sided, or single sided magnet. The eyebolt can be screw into the side of the casing or through the magnet face.

What's in the box?

It includes two threaded eyelets. This assembly is made with A3 steel plate and coated with Nickel-Copper-Nickel to be the strongest and most durable type of fishing magnet available.

The holding power of 1700 lb is a combined maximum pull between the two magnetic face. Each side will produce around 850 lb of pulling force.

Additional product recommended :

Threadlocker to keep the eyebolt from backing out.

Recommended rope (not included) : 10mm x 20m
